Your Career Your Way: Taking Charge of Your Career

This year's Young Lawyer Summit will focus on ways bar associations can assist young lawyers take charge of their careers. The first part of the program will be a presentation by a career coach who will provide practical tips and advice on ways lawyers can take ownership in developing their careers. The second part of the program focuses on using the Maryland State Bar Association as a career development tool. Specifically, how the MSBA helps lawyers develop their substantive practice areas, using the MSBA as a networking and client development tool, and will end with a brainstorming session of ways the MSBA can enhance career development opportunities for its members.
